Using the Dashboard in Vault

The first time you log in to Vault (when you confirm your registration), you will land on the Vault Dashboard page.

From this page you can access your account settings by clicking on the Account button.

You can navigate to the Dashboard page at any time using the Home drop-down menu.

Within your account settings, you can change your name, email address, and password.